

Nau mai, haere mai!

Tuahiwi Education Committee welcomes educators to come along and take part in a day of learning on our marae.

We have run many successful workshops with educators in schools, early childhood centres, tertiary institutions, health providers and more. We would now like to continue sharing the same information with others. The information shared will be about:

- Ngāi Tahu Migration (Who is Ngāi Tahu?)
- Culturally significant sites to Ngāi Tūāhuriri
- Tikanga and Kawa
- Mihimihi
- Pōwhiri Process

or by Cheque to Tuahiwi Education brought to the workshop on the day.

Please note Koha to the marae itself is separate and not included in the workshop registration. Koha is collected just prior to the pōwhiri on the day of the workshop. Koha can be in the form of cash or cheque to Ngāi Tūāhuriri Rūnanga. Koha is given to the marae for the upkeep and maintenance of the marae. If you give cash or cheques as Koha please put it in an envelope with the name of your school/ECE centre or organisation etc. Receipts are also given for Koha.
