

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Mana Ake—learning series for education professionals Year 1– 8

Wednesday 3 April 2019 - 7 pm – 9 pm

Anxiety

Presented by Matt Eggleston – Psychiatrist CAF (Child, Adolescent and Family—Mental Health Services)

Supporting children at school with mild to moderate anxiety.

- It's a family issue!
- How anxiety presents in children
- Managing avoidance

Eczema

Presented by Aimee Mackey—Clinical Nurse Specialist, CDHB

Understanding eczema and evidence based management.

- What is eczema?
- The basics of management and dispelling myths
- The burden of eczema and how teachers can make a difference for their pupils and families

Literacy learning difficulties

Presented by Alison Arrow - Associate Professor, University of Canterbury

Recognising and responding to literacy difficulties

- Identifying literacy learning difficulties
- School-based frameworks for supporting students
- Strategies for teaching students with literacy learning difficulties

Leading Lights Update (5 min)

Presented by: Polly Hutchinson, Education Lead Adviser

- Latest pathways to go live
- There are 'gems' as well as pathways on the site
- How teachers can get involved

Anxiety—strategies for managing avoidance.

How teachers can make a difference for pupils with eczema.

Evidenced based strategies for supporting children with literacy difficulties.

Booking Details

Date: Wednesday 3 April 2019

Time: 7 pm—9 pm

Venue: The Atrium,
Hagley Netball Courts
Hagley Ave, Christchurch

To book: click on the email link below:

ProfDev@leadinglights.org.nz

Contact us at: ProfDev@leadinglights.org.nz