

The process for the second consultation period

The process for schools following the announcement.

The Minister announces her interim decision after considering the Board's feedback.

In accordance with section 154 of the Education Act 1989, where the Minister's interim decision is that the school should close, a school's Board "may be asked if it has any arguments in favour of the school's staying open". This is usually required within a 28 day period.

The process begins when a Board is informed of the Minister's interim decision. Boards have until 4pm, 3 July 2013 to respond. In the Christchurch situation the Minister has agreed that all affected schools will have additional time to provide feedback.

The response should be addressed to Kathryn Palmer, Acting Regional Manager, Ministry of Education, PO Box 2522, Christchurch 8140.

This feedback will then be considered along with the initial submission before a final decision is made.

If the Board does not wish to provide further feedback or argument on why the school should remain open or on the interim decision, it should state that in a letter or submission to the Ministry. If a submission is not received from any affected Board by the close off date, the Board will be contacted by the Ministry.

A Board may decide to consult with its community during this response period.

A possible template for the submission is provided on the back of this fact sheet.

The Ministry will pay up to $2,500 to fund a facilitator to support the Board (up to 20 hours @ $100 per hour plus $500 for other costs).

The Board may use the same facilitator that it used for the initial consultation period, or it may contract someone else. (The Ministry has a list of suitably experienced people.)

Ministry staff:
Ali Locke (ali.locke@minedu.govt.nz)
Murray Aitken (murray.aitken@minedu.govt.nz) or Nick Harrall (nick.harrall@minedu.govt.nz)
are also available to assist.
